Course is endorsable

Year : 13

Course : English 302

Mr M Edgecombe

Total Credits : 29

This course is designed to help you become better at critical thinking. This means that you will not only analyse how texts work, but consider WHY they are giving the kind of messages they give, and why the text creators have used the techniques they've used. You will be given several writing tasks to do over the course of the year to help you develop a portfolio of work to be assessed in Term 3. AS 91098 and AS 91099 are optional Level 2 exam standards which you can choose to sit if you are in need of University Entrance literacy credits.
